

8:15 AM	Registration (morning snacks)
8:45 AM	Welcome from NJMEA president and PSE&G staff
9:00 AM	Auditorium- Keynote Speaker: Lisa M. Calvo , Aquaculture Extension Program Coordinator, Haskins Shellfish Laboratory New Jersey Sea Grant Consortium's Shellfish Aquaculture Program Coordinator
9:30 AM	Session 1
	The Fish on Your Dish: A Renewable Resource Gone Wrong	The Mighty Macro!	Tour of PSE&G Education Exhibits
	Jennifer Lengares, Jenkinson's Aquarium	Loretta Pregartner, Watershed Ambassador	Theresa Widger, Stakeholder Outreach Specialist, PES&G
	Classroom 1	Classroom 2	Exhibit space entrance
11:00 AM	Session 2
	Project PORTS	Creating a Jersey-Friendly School Garden	Saltmarsh Restoration (Part 1)
	Lisa Calvo	Karen Walzer, Barnegat Bay Partnership	Jack Carr, Center for Aquatic Sciences
	Classroom 1	Classroom 2	Meet in main lobby
12:30 PM	Lunch
1:30 PM	Session 3
	System Wide Monitoring Program (SWMP): Real-time monitoring data at your fingertips!	Restoring New Jersey Water Resources through Research and Education/Microplastics	Saltmarsh Restoration (Part 2)
	Gregg Sakowicz, Jacques Cousteau National Estuarine Research Reserve Field/SWMP Technician	Beth Ravit, PhD, Center for Urban Environmental Sustainability - Rutgers University	Jack Carr, Center for Aquatic Sciences
	Classroom 1	Classroom 2	Meet in main lobby
3:00 PM	Session 4
	Is it hot in here or is it just the climate?	Share Session	Tour of PSE&G Education Exhibits
	Jennifer Lengares, Jenkinson's Aquarium	Facilitated by: Kaitlin Gannon, NJMEA President	Theresa Widger, Stakeholder Outreach Specialist, PES&G
	Classroom 1	Classroom 2	Exhibit space entrance
4:00	Surveys and Certificates		